

Around our two beautiful Lake Ontario harbours, Oakville enjoys vibrant arts and sports recreation opportunities, unique small business districts and sought-after residential neighbourhoods in a community that values and preserves its cultural and environmental heritage.

Oakville is Canada's community of choice to raise a family or enjoy retirement.

We have a younger average age and more families with children than the provincial average. With healthy levels of civic participation and community spirit, Oakville has always been home to people who aim high and know how to achieve their goals. We are home to Olympic champions and celebrities and leaders from many fields. Our warm welcoming attitude to newcomers speeds their smooth transition here. We are economically favoured by our closeness to Toronto, Pearson International Airport and the 400 series highways that connect our people and business to Toronto, U.S. and world markets. In fact, there's nothing average about our Town.

Oakville's Town Council has set high goals as we work to create the most livable town in Canada by controlling growth and catching up on community facilities. By 2010, we will be the first government in Canada to implement performance-based, program-based (PB2) budgeting and fiscal management to target and measure our efficiency and productivity.

The Office of the Mayor and Council works to make sure we meet your needs as cherished resident or welcome visitor. How may we serve you?
