Online Consolidation of Zoning By-law 2014-014

Town of Oakville Comprehensive Zoning By-law 2014-014 was passed by Council on February 25, 2014, at the conclusion of the inZone Project. Council's decision was appealed by a number of parties, and outstanding appeals continue to be adjudicated by the Ontario Municipal Board (OMB File No. PL140317).

Zoning By-law 2014-014 was partially deemed in force by the Board on February 23, 2015. Since then, additional sections of the By-law have been deemed in force by the Board. As of the date of this consolidation, certain sections of the By-law are not yet in force, as noted throughout the document. Properties or regulations under appeal are covered with a blue tone. On these matters, compliance with both Zoning By-law 1984-63 and Zoning By-law 2014-014 is required.

Although the document parts (and mapping available through Explore Oakville) are updated on a regular basis, this consolidation of Zoning By-law 2014-014 is provided for convenience and reference should be made to the original passed documents for confirmation.

It is advised that you contact the Building Services department to ensure that you are viewing all applicable regulations related to building projects, and the Planning Services department for any questions about development projects or project timing.
