

Renter Code of Conduct

1. Premise of this Code

The premise of this Code is that the short term accommodation premises are, for the most part, located in residential neighborhoods and that the residents of these neighborhoods have the right to enjoy their own properties without being imposed upon by nuisance from others.

2. Objectives of this Code

The objective of this Code is to establish acceptable standards of behavior for renters, and their guests, to minimize any adverse social or environmental impacts on their neighbors and neighborhood.

3. Residential Area

The Renter acknowledges for themselves and on the behalf of others that they will be occupying a short term rental accommodation that is located in a residential area.

4. Guiding Principles

The Guiding Principles for short term accommodation renters are:

- The premise that you are occupying is a home;
- Treat the premise as your own;
- Respect your neighbors; and,
- Leave it as you find it.

5. Maximum number of Renters and Guests:

- a) The maximum number of occupants within a dwelling that is being operated as a short term accommodation shall not exceed a total number based upon two (2) persons per bedroom plus an additional two (2) persons and,
- b) The number of non-occupying guests permitted at a short term accommodation premises must not be such that it may conflict with the residential neighborhood or amenity.

6. Noise and Residential Amenity

No person shall make noise so as to cause a disturbance or conduct themselves in a way that is likely to disturb area residents.

Examples of noise that is likely to disturb residents include:

- a) Loud music;
- b) Outdoor or backyard gatherings involving excessive noise;
- c) Late or early hour disturbances; and,
- d) Yelling, shouting, singing and loud conversations.

Please be advised that the Town of Oakville Noise By-law No. 2008-098, as amended, is in effect 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The noise by-law prohibits;

Clearly audible sound from a stereo or other amplifying device between 5 p.m. to 7 a.m. (9 a.m. on Sundays) and at all other times where the noise exceeds 45 decibels (dBA) measured inside of another home.

Renters and their guests are not allowed to disturb neighbors or interfere with their enjoyment of their properties, or the public realm, at any time of the day or night. Failure to comply with the conditions of the Town's Noise By-law may result in legal action.

Please enjoy your stay in the Town of Oakville but have consideration for others.

7. Functions and Parties

- a) Short term accommodation renters are not to host commercial functions;
- b) So called "party houses" conflict with residential amenity and are not permitted; and,
- c) Any gathering, celebration or entertainment at a short term rental accommodation premise must not conflict with residential amenity and must comply with all the other requirements of this Code and the Town of Oakville by-laws.

8. Access and Parking

Please familiar yourself and your guests with the Parking Management Plan for the premises so as to ensure ease of access with minimum disturbance to other residents or neighboring properties.

All short term accommodation premises will have vehicle parking limits, please refer to the Parking Management Plan for the premises.

9. Recycling and Garbage

Please familiar yourself and your guests with the Property Management Plan, including the provisions that have been made for waste management and the day of the week in which waste collection is scheduled. It should be noted that the "putting out" of waste on a non-scheduled day is regulated by the Town's Waste Management By-law #1991-27 as amended. Waste collection information and pick up times are available on the Region of Halton website at www.halton.ca.
