

Interim Control By-laws

10.0 Interim Control By-laws (2013-065)

Where a hatched line overlay is shown with a number and lower case letter “i” indicating in some manner to the overlay, the overlay refers to an Interim Control By-law that applies to the lands so designated. No change in use and no construction of any buildings or structures as identified in the applicable Interim Control By-law in this Part of this By-law shall be permitted until the expiry or repeal of the applicable Interim Control By-law, in accordance with Section 38 of the Planning Act.

An Interim Control By-law is the temporary freezing of identified development permissions on subject lands until a corresponding land use planning study is completed. They can apply for a period of up to two years: one year on adoption by Council, and up to one more year through an extension of the By-law. The authority to approve an Interim Control By-law comes from Section 38 of the Planning Act.
